

Point – F – 158
Shri Jain Girls' P.G. College, Bikaner
Institutional Distinctiveness

- 1- Sh. Jain girls' p.g. college is being administrative by the shri jain pathshala sabha Bikaner which has been endeavoring for illuminating the light of knowledge since 1905.
- 2- This college is fully depending on the resources which come from society along with the funds raised through tuition fees charged from students.
- 3- Most of the student come from mediocre families and fees charged from them is very affordable in return of quality teaching.
- 4- The fees concession provision is also provided to the economically weak students which is sponsored the philanthropists with such noble pursuit.
- 5- College campus fulfills all the structural parameters as set by the U.G.C and Directorate of Higher Education of the state.
- 6- College is enabled with WI-FI facility and the library is rich with stake of 23500 books of faculty wise discipline along with off-course magazines and research Journals.
- 7- The student of all faculty have obtained ranks and Gold Medals in university results.
- 8- The teaching staff fully devoted to this noble task with good academic and research credentials. Staff qualifications and teaching experience fulfill the parameters as set by the U.G.C and Directorate of Higher Education of the state.
- 9- External lecturers, excursions within and out of the city, campus placement, camps N.S.S. activity are time to time held.
- 10- The college ever remains ready on call for contributing in the activity conducted by the local, state and centre administrations with the true sense of support.
- 11- The college attempts for preparing cultured, skilled, self reliant-and empowered youth for the nation.