

Point - F - 157

Shri Jain Girls' P.G. College, Bikaner

(since - 1995)

Sh. Jain Girl's p.g. college, Bikaner is the part of Sh. Jain Pathshala Sabha, Bikaner with the glorifying history of about 115 years alongwith the inspiration of ascetic personalities (Marks and Norms). The Sh. Jain Pathshala Sabha came in to existence with a view to imparting ever envisioned education for empowering the nation under the aegis of Sh. Jain Pathsala Sabha. The college has been endeavoring for spreading the light of education with human values since its advent time in 1905. Although this college being recognized by the directorate of higher education, Rajasthan and affiliated to the Maharaja Ganga Singh University, Bikaner, Has innumeros prominent attributes yet the best of them which make this college truly noteworthy are being mentioned here under -

First - Produce of societal Approach :- Sh. Jain Girls P.G. College came into being with the inspiring efforts of the ascetic personalities and being, since its advent time financially enabled by the Bhamasahs (Donors). The land was made available under the provision of "Patta Land Rulling". This college does not at all belong to any individual or any particular family. Further, it was structured, Furnished and time to time renovated by Bhamasahs who were / are committed for empowering the female section of society irrespective of caste and creed. Whatsoever resources come to the college are introduced for development of various types. The girls came attain over all education. Furthermore the one and only vision of Sh. Jain Pathsala Sabha is to enable this college anyhow by consistent social connectivity for providing effective milieu to prepare the future of nation inculcating versatility and multi-skills.

Second - Student friendly discipline :-

One of the best practices of this college is its student friendly discipline which keeps the premise quite vibrant and prolific. Admittance with identity card at college gate, college uniform compulsion (Except Wednesday) utilizing available resources installed within the campus, attendance of classes and time to time conducting special lecturers of the expertise are the system ensuring discipline. It keeps the campus safe and secured offering many benefits. Time to time faculty wise supervisory rounds are taken.